The reasons why the participants get involved in the NELLIP Workshop?

- My will to know things and to be informed
- Getting accustomed with the linguistic projects
- New useful information. Dynamic activities.
- Curiosity, the will to learn and be informed regarding linguistic projects
- Life long learning, acquiring new competences and new contacts
- Improving the system of workin within projects
- Personal development, widening the technological capacity. Compiling projects on intercultural and communication domains
- Out of curiosity and willing to learn more about international projects
- For educational training
- Formation/personal and profesional development.

- I expected to get more information on how to develop projects, various ideas and examples of successful projects and to find out more on the students' needs and how to respond to these needs through innovative and creative projects.
- My expectations were to gain more information and competences for applying for EU projects and to collect good ideas.
- As a teacher who teaches in a vocational school the role of languages for professional development is not always clear enough; my school has not been aware about the distinction European label, that is way I was curious to find more information on this.
- I hoped to have the chance to become candidate for European label awards and to brainstorm ideas on how to make it a success.
- My university develops the project "TakeCare" and we take into consideration the fact to apply for ELL and I decided to participate in this workshop to find more on how to apply and what to highlight in the application.
- I really appreciate all the organizer's work and activities and I was convinced that the information acquired would be a great asset for me.

With an average of 8,1 the overall evaluation of the workshop was positive. Most of the participants highly appreciated the practical activities of the workshop and the preparation and information transferred by facilitators. Also the organization of the workshop and the objectives, the methodologies and interaction among participants were achieved greatly. The lowest average was for the transnational online meeting (5,5/10) because of the technical problems we faced, the volume was very low because of the slow internet connection and the participants had to struggle to hear the aspects presented by the partners from Lithuania.

Comments received:

- I really appreciated the information and experiences shared by the organizers. The workshop was very good organized, in terms of time and information shared. The discussions held increased my interest in developing more consolidated projects within my Department from the University and to be able to apply for EU awards like ELL.
- Great projects ideas. We had the possibility to develop more on the idea of the project already in development; it was great to check the feasibility of the proposed activities and to add more ideas. It was a pity that we could not hear very well the project ideas of the partners from Lithuania.
- In the interactive part of the activities I had the chance to interact with teachers from other national schools and to work on elaborating the idea of a project with common interests.
- It was a great opportunity to disseminate and discuss about the projects and activities I developed in my school.
- I appreciated the chance to network with colleagues from other HE institutions. My group identified new projects and we collaborated and decided to continue to work on really implementing the idea. It was very useful to find more about which are the needed innovative and quality elements for our projects.
- We would appreciate very much to join the Nellip network.
- Great opportunity on sharing project ideas. Raising awareness on tips on quality and innovative elements on projects.

- The meeting was very pleasant and useful. I really had some project ideas after the meeting. I had the opportunity to meet great professionals and also old friends.
- These organizers don't stop surprising me in a very positive way.
- A very positive interaction.
- Everything was ok!
- Little problems with the Skype connection. The idea was great but unfortunately due to the technical problems we were unable to hear the partner
- I really enjoyed it very much.
- The presentations and the workshop were very good elaborated and I was very pleased to be able to participate.
- Attending this workshop helped me improve my know- how.
- I very much appreciated the interactive approach
- I liked the presentation and the welcoming from the organizers
- Collaboration
- The fact that the organizers were very involved.
