Liliana Dellevoet is Business English lecturer at the Bucharest Academy of Business and Economics and Deputy Director of PROSPER-ASE Language Centre.

She graduated the Faculty of Foreign Languages at the University of Bucharest (specialisation in English and Portuguese Languages and Literatures) and she has a Master degree in International Business.

Liliana Dellevoet has extensive experience as a translator and as an IELTS and Cambridge oral examiner, as a business English teacher and last, but not least, as a manager of European projects in the field of language education.

So far, Liliana Dellevoet has successfully coordinated the EuroIntegrELP project, one of the five projects awarded with the European Language Label of Labels in Limassol, Cyprus, in September 2012.

Liliana Dellevoet is also actively involved in teacher training activities and in the promotion of the EAQUALS-ALTE version of the European Language Portfolio (15+) among language teachers and undergraduate students in Romania.
